

UN-BE-WEAVE-ABLE

This is a complicated looking quilt that is surprisingly simple to piece. BUT... it takes a bit of concentration and paying attention to what you are sewing where. The results are well worth the time and focus.

SUPPLY LIST

- Pattern by "X Blocks" – Un be weave a ble
- X Block Ruler – the size is up to you. (I wouldn't go any smaller than the mini 7.5 ruler).

7.5" rulers – finished quilt size is 98" x 112"

6.5" rulers – finished quilt size is 84" x 98"

Mini 7.5 ruler – finished quilt size is 49" x 56"

- Fabric quantity depends on your ruler size. You may want to get a tad more than indicated below to allow for shrinkage and "oops" in cutting.

RULER SIZE	Background	13 different colors	Middle border fabric	Backing & Binding
Mini 7.5 (finished quilt size 49" x 56")	3 yds	1/3 yd each	1/2 yd	3.5 yd
6.5" (finished quilt size 84" x 96")	6.5 yds	2/3 yd each	1 yd	8.25 yd
7.5" (finished quilt size 98" x 112")	8 yds	3/4 yd each	1.5 yd	9.75 yd

- Sewing Machine in good working order that you are comfortable with. Manual for machine (in case something goes wrong)
- ¼" piecing foot or knowing where your ¼" seam allowance is on your machine.
- Basic sewing supplies, pins, seam ripper, scissors... etc
- Glue Stick
- Rotary cutter and mat. Mat should be no smaller than 12" x 18". The larger the better.
- Optional, but you'll be glad you have it – Spinning cutting mat. (one that revolves).
- Stickers or other means to label your rows. This is very important.
- Fabric Grips, truegrips, or other product to put on your X-Block ruler to prevent slipping.

PRE-WORK – Following the cutting Chart in your pattern, (copy attached to this supply list) cut the required number of A squares (background), B squares and C rectangles the size called upon based on your ruler size.

There is a LOT of cutting, so don't wait until the last minute to try to get it all done. Do a little at a time to ensure accuracy in your cutting.

As you are straightening your fabric, glue a small swatch on the attached color key chart. You don't have to use the exact colors as called for on the chart, but you do need to know which of your colors correspond to the chart colors. This is for placement when putting your quilt together.
