Have some Spring in your home year round with this wall hanging. Create embroidered vintage blue-green bottles with the illusion of flower stems then add three dimensional daffodils before you decide what type of pre- quilted background you would like to use.

Pattern fee: $10

Kit fee: $25 includes: fabrics for bottles and blooms, embroidery floss, Inktense pencil, interfacing, batting for bottles

Supplies needed:

Thread: blueish green, yellow and green for appliqué or a neutral for class as the machine stitching will not show.

Sewing machine, foot pedal, cord, instruction manual, extra needles

Pencil, regular and mechanical

Detail scissors

Pinking shears or a wavy rotary cutter (I will have mine to share)

If you have them - point turner, Purple Thang, tube turners, hemostats

Light box (I will have mine to share or we can use a window)

Embroidery needle (I use size 7 or 8)

Pins

*You do not have to have these for class:

Pre-quilted background approximately 13" x 19"

This can be hand or machine quilted, new or vintage (you could use the back of a piece of an old cutter quilt)

Thread to match your background Invisible thread (I use Sulky .004 Soft)

If you do not purchase a kit you will also need to bring:

3 Blueish green fabrics for bottles, nothing larger than 6" x 12" will be needed.

Assorted yellow/orange scraps for daffodils, nothing larger than 7" x 12" will be needed.

Green for stems - bias 3/4" x 7" x 3 pieces

Lightweight interfacing for bottles 12" x 24"

10" x 12" batting for bottles (I use Warm and White)

Embroidery floss to blend with your bottle fabrics

Thread - blueish green, green and yellows, coordinate with fabrics for appliqué.

Derwent Inktence pencil, light olive #1540 (I sell these for $4)

Quilted background piece 13" x 19" ( not needed for class)

Optional: seed beads and floss for flower detail
