

Linda Boone is a fabric collector who occasionally cuts it up to make quilts, bags, and other art projects. Currently the president of the Charlottesville Area Quilt Guild, she is also a member of the Richmond Chapter of the American Sewing Guild and the Four Seasons Quilt and Fiber Arts Group in Greene County. While fabric provides her a creative outlet, she thrives in the camaraderie of being with women (and the occasional men) who enjoy learning and sharing all things found in the quilting arts.